

Speaker's Biosketch

ICoLA 2024

Ashraf Reda (Menoufia University, Egypt)

Ashraf Reda (born 1955) received his MB.BCh degree from Ain Shams University, Egypt 1979, Master degree in Cardiology , ElAzhar University, Egypt 1984 and MD degree , in Cardiovascular Medicine, from the University of Menoufia, Egypt, in 1991. He was a professor of Cardiology and the head of Cardiology department, Menoufia University, Egypt, 2002 – 2015 . He is currently an acting professor of Cardiology, college of Medicine, Menoufia University, Egypt.

Professor Dr Ashraf Reda is the president of Egyptian Association of Vascular biology and Atherosclerosis (EAVA), national lead investigator of familial hypercholesterolemia studies collaboration of the EAS, and the director of lipid Registry of Africa (LIPRA) project and the PI of Cardiorisk project addressing risk factors of Egyptian patients with ACS